

How To Clean Swimming Pool Tiles

Regular cleaning of your tiles is a very important task and by maintaining your tile cleaning can give you a beautiful look and you've to keep it nice and clean.

Steps You Need To Take Before Tile Cleaning

- Stainless steel or nylon pool brush
- Pool pumice stone
- Vinegar
- Muriatic acid
- Eye protection

Cleaning Of Tiles

Set your pool pump filter to backwash and let it drain the water level down to just below the bottom of the tiles.

Start Cleaning

Take a stainless steel brush or a nylon brush along with a little water and starts brushing gently to remove it the residue.

Cleaning Of Hard Stains From Tile

- Take small amount of acid and start brushing on to the stains.
- Let the acid settle down and leave it for a few minutes.
- Scrub the tiles with the pool brush.
- Keep in mind to wear personal protective eye goggles and gloves that are resistant to

Commercial Solutions

There are some commercial tile cleaners solutions available and most of them are very strong which contain hydrochloric, phosphoric and/or hydrofluoric acids.

Thank You

